PART II

NARRATIVE SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT HIGHLIGHTS

The first two weeks of August 1969 were spent moving firing batteries from tactical sites to the immediate area around the Battalion CP and MACG-18 in preparation for embarkation from the Republic of Vietnam.

On 11 August 1969 an advanced party left for Okinawa to locate and recover personal baggage stored there. "A" and "C" batteries began loading aboard ship on 13 August and departed Danang that same day aboard the USS BELLE GROVE, LSD-2 and the USS TORTUGA LSD-26. On 14 August "B" and H&S batteries departed Danang aboard USS TULARE LKA-112.

A ^{brief} stop was made at Okinawa by all three ships to pick up personal baggage. The two LSD's then stopped at Yokosuka, Japan 21 August and sailed for CONUS on 26 August. The LKA arrived at Sasebo, Japan 23, August and sailed for CONUS on 31 August. The Battalion was still embarked at the end of August.

The Battalion embarked after four and one half years of continuous service in RVN with no damage to equipment. Loading of all three ships was completed swiftly and smoothly.
